

November 10- Home Décor Drapery Workshop

Prickly Pair Home Décor store presents the “Design on a Budget” fall series of workshops at 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the outside pavilion in front of their store, 4025 East Chandler Boulevard, #26 (S/E corner of Chandler and 40th streets).

The third workshop of this series occurs on Saturday, November 10th, with featured interior designer, Rosanne Youngblood, who will cover “How to Decorate for the Holidays Using What You Already Own”. During the workshop topics will include how to utilize your existing holiday decorations and make them look new and updated. Trendy new ceiling decorations will also be unveiled. A question and answer session will occur at the end of the workshop.

Tickets for the workshop are $10. All proceeds will be donated to “East Valley Child Crisis Center”. Seats are very limited and require tickets prior to the event at the Prickly Pair store up to the day before each workshop. Call or stop by for more information- 480-706-3939.

#